THAT Kicks Off 2nd Annual Art Tour May 4 at Hunterdon Art Museum

The 2nd annual self-guided driving and walking art tour of Hunterdon County will be held on the weekend of May 5 and 6, 2018. The Hunterdon Art Tour (THAT) is the realization of a small, dedicated volunteer group of artists, art lovers and longtime Hunterdon County residents.

A free kickoff celebration will take place on Friday, May 4 from 7 PM to 9 PM at the Hunterdon Art Museum in Clinton. THAT's artists will be featured in a special exhibition, and artwork will be offered for sale at the event. Come and meet the artists, see their work and use the exhibition, along with the elegant and comprehensive printed map, to develop your own self-guided tour.

Artists' studios and group exhibitions at multiple locations will be open to the public on Saturday, May 5 and Sunday, May 6 from 10 AM to 6 PM.

The Hunterdon Art Tour (THAT) is a volunteer-driven initiative that aspires to build awareness of – and connections to – the artists in Hunterdon County by coordinating an annual countywide open studios tour; building community among artists, arts educators and students of all ages; and promoting Hunterdon County as an arts destination.

“Now in its second year, we are equally excited and honored by the continued and growing enthusiasm for this project,” states Val Sivilli, artist and member, THAT Organizing Committee. “Ultimately, THAT will help define what it means to be a Hunterdon County Artist - and what the voice of the artist truly is at this time in history, here in Hunterdon County and in relation to the wider world.”

THAT has attracted the generous support of sponsors and partners, including Hunterdon County Cultural & Heritage Commission (funding made possible in part by the Hunterdon County Board of Chosen Freeholders, through funds administered by the Cultural & Heritage Commission), ArtYard, River Union Stage, Hunterdon Art Museum, Hunterdon County Democratic Committee, Flemington DIY, Kissimmee River Pottery, Mad Lavender Farm, SFA Gallery, The Takaazu Studio and The Wild Radish.

“With the deep dedication of the Organizing Committee, artists, partners, volunteers and sponsors, THAT is helping to showcase the very best of Hunterdon County's arts, cultural and historic assets,” says Carrie Fellows, Executive Director, Division of Culture & Heritage, Hunterdon County Cultural & Heritage Commission. A Special Project Grant approved by the Board of Chosen Freeholders was integral in expanding THAT's marketing efforts for 2018 across the county and surrounding area.
